

Things To Know For Your Anne Frank Test:

1. Plot
2. Characters
  - a. Dynamic vs. static characters
3. How to break down theme
  - a. Text analysis

Name That Character, Place, or Thing: A Game

Said “She puts me to shame.”

Cares very deeply for his/her possessions.

The most infamous concentration camp.

The group that comes for the “annex family”

Said “I’m sort of a lone wolf.”

The city in which the story takes place

The secret annex's pet

When Allied forces stormed the beaches in France, starting off the invasion.

Said “In spite of everything, I still believe that people are really good at heart.”

These were used to get food
during the war.

Steals from the “annex family”

Jewish religious symbol (also used for Nazi oppression)

The woman “protector” over the “annex family”

Hitler's political party.

Anne's roommate for the second half of the play.

Holiday celebrated by Jewish people.

The more reserved, mature sister
in the Frank family.

Where the family hid.

Threatens to evict the Van Daans

The man “protector” over the “annex family”

Character Types

- Static character – a character who remains the same.

- Dynamic character – a character who changes.

Sort those characters!

Static Characters

Dynamic Characters

Theme Examples

THEME: Isolation can affect people to do things that they normally would not do.

Act 2, Scene 1

People went crazy over the cake that Miep brought. Mr. Van Daan wanted to have the most. It seems like this isolation causes a few people to go crazy over any type of food.

THEME: Isolation can affect people to do things that they normally would not do.

Act 2, Scene 2

Peter kissed Anne [on the cheek]. Because Anne and Peter had no one else to talk to, they started getting close. So, in a way, isolation caused Peter to kiss Anne. Peter wouldn't have even talked to her if they didn't end up in the annex together.

THEME: Isolation can affect people to do things that they normally would not do.

Act 2, Scene 3

Because the families are isolated, it causes them to do wrong things and to react in a bad way. For example, Mrs. Frank found out Mr. Van Daan was stealing food and she wants him out.