

Gardner's Multiple Intelligences Theory and Personal River Project Reflection

1. How does looking at your results change on the M.I. Inventory change your understanding of what it means to be "intelligent"? (Address in your answer: what was your understanding of the word "intelligent" before examining this theory?)
2. Were your results on the Multiple Intelligences Inventory what you expected? Why or why not? Go in depth!
3. Look at your top 3 strength areas on the Multiple Intelligences Inventory. In what ways have your life experiences helped to nurture these strengths? (Reference at least one life event you represented on your Personal River Project).
